

Farmers' Queries on PMFBY Claims Resolved at HKKP Office

Panchkula, July 1, 2026

A meeting was held today in the office of the Chairman, Haryana Kisan Kalyan Pradhikaran (HKKP), to address farmers' grievances and resolve issues related to the Pradhan Mantri Fasal Bima Yojana (PMFBY). The meeting was conducted under the guidance of the Chairman, HKKP, with the active participation of senior officers and economists from the Agriculture Department.

During the interaction, a farmer raised concerns regarding the settlement of crop insurance claims under the Pradhan Mantri Fasal Bima Yojana. The farmer sought clarification on the procedure, eligibility, and reasons for the delay in receiving the insurance claim.

The senior officers and economists of the Agriculture Department patiently heard the concerns and provided a detailed explanation of the claim settlement process. They clarified the provisions of the scheme, the role of crop-cutting experiments, assessment procedures, and the documentation required for timely claim processing. The officials also addressed the specific case presented by the farmer and assured that the matter would be examined in accordance with the prescribed guidelines.

The meeting provided an effective platform for direct interaction between farmers and government officials, enabling transparent communication and prompt resolution of grievances. Farmers appreciated the initiative taken by the Haryana Kisan Kalyan Pradhikaran in facilitating such discussions and expressed satisfaction with the guidance provided by the departmental experts.

The Chairman emphasized that the Pradhikaran remains committed to safeguarding farmers' interests and will continue to organize similar grievance redressal meetings to ensure that issues related to agricultural welfare schemes are resolved efficiently and transparently.
